My sissy... I have so much to say and am unable to speak. I have so much to say and not enough words to express my love for you and my sorrow. I am so proud of you my sister, of all that you were. I miss our conversations and your smile. I miss you saying my name. I miss the energy you brought into my life. I miss everything about you. I was so blessed to share my 40 years by your side. We will meet again Alicia and the next time we meet we will never have to part again. Until then I will miss you and love you with every breath I breathe and long for you through every day that I have left. You were my best friend and my heart my sissy. I will love you until we meet again Alicia. I look forward to that day. I have so much to say but no words could ever describe the emptiness I feel since you left. No words are enough for the life you lived, the strength you embodied and the way you loved us. I miss you from the depths of my soul my sissy. One day I will walk with you again. I love you.
