I'm sharing a memory of a mother figure who treated me like her own son, like her own blood. She gave me the love, care, and support I wanted. During the years I knew her, I always considered her my real mother, knowing I was adopted and she knew, too. Since you've left this world, Mama Nellie, you'll always be in my heart. As I've always told you, you will be the most important person in my life, now and forever. Thank you so much for everything you did for me, and for everything you do for me. Thank you for the lessons you taught me. I can't stop crying thinking about you, that you're gone. But wherever you are, Mama Nellie, please guide and help us—not only me, but your children and everyone you loved. I love you dearly, Mama Nellie, and I'll miss you, but I know I'll see you again in Paradise. IWALY MAMA KO! -John Carlo (JC)
