Celebrating the Beautiful Life of Kevin Baclig Vallesteros

January 1st, 1996 - January 28th, 2025

We gather to celebrate the vibrant life of Kevin Baclig Vallesteros, who was born on January 1st, 1996 in Honolulu, Hawaii, and passed away on January 28th, 2025 in Phoenix, Arizona. A hardworking Dad, Son, Brother, Grandson, Uncle, and Boyfriend, Kevin filled our lives with joy and love.

Kevin recently embarked on a new journey as a Facilities Associate at the Honolulu Airport Hotel, showcasing his dedication and hardworking spirit. .

Known for being kind, hardworking, responsible, humble, and supportive, Kevin touched the hearts of all who knew him. His supportive nature and warm smile brought comfort and happiness to friends and family alike.

He leaves behind his beloved girlfriend Melissa Cabrera and their son Kaesyn Cabrera-Vallesteros, who were the light of his life. Kevin is also survived by his loving parents, mother Gavina (Eric Nunies) Baclig and father Bobby (Tashan Pacheco) Vallesteros; his cherished grandmother Cristina Baclig; his siblings, sister Bobbi-Amber (Jon) Yamada, brothers Preston Vallesteros, Jordan Nunies, sister Tiffany Nunies, and brother Ashton Nunies; and his two dear nieces.

As we remember Kevin, we celebrate the beautiful life he lived and the joyful memories he leaves behind. His spirit of adventure and love will continue to inspire us all. Let us honor his legacy by embracing life's moments just as he did.

Please contact the family for details about the service.
