Celebrating the Life of Glenn Patolot Fernandez

August 29th, 1964 - April 24th, 2025

A life filled with kindness, hard work, and unwavering loyalty—that was the journey of Glenn Patolot Fernandez. Born amidst the vibrant culture of the Philippines on August 29th, 1964, Glenn carried the warmth and spirit of his homeland wherever he went.

Embarking on a new adventure, Glenn embraced his role in the hotel industry as a Bellman. His supportive nature and confident demeanor made every guest feel welcome, and his colleagues admired his dedication. Settling in Waipahu, Hawaii, he continued to touch lives with his generous heart and hardworking spirit until his peaceful passing on April 24th, 2025.

Glenn's legacy shines brightly through his cherished family: his beloved son, Greylan Fernandez; his devoted partner, Janice Aganus; his brothers, Gilbert (Madeline) Fernandez, Gerry Fernandez, and Querubin "Kerby" Fernandez; and his dear sister, Leilani Fernandez. Each holds treasured memories of laughter, love, and the unwavering support Glenn always provided.

As we celebrate Glenn's beautiful life, we remember the kindness he spread, the loyalty he upheld, and the confidence he instilled in others. His vibrant spirit and joyful presence continue to inspire all who knew him. May we honor his memory by embracing the same love and enthusiasm for life that he so effortlessly shared.

Memories only last if you share them
