The memories I will forever cherish with my mama would be sleeping over her house. My mama and papa are the best grandparents anyone could ask for, as little as I was, I would remember the early mornings, and I'm talking about 4:30 in the morning. Mama would start up the coffee and papa would take out the soda crackers, butter and strawberry jelly. Mama would make papa a cup of coffee and then she would make me one too. I was 8 years old drinking straight black coffee with my mama and papa. My mama would talk to me on how to be a young, smart, independent woman with manners. While my mama talks to me, my papa would be making me crackers and jelly. Ohh how time flies by, I will forever cherish those morning talks and feeling the love from my mama and papa.-mahal na mahalakita mama ❤️

I remember meeting Francis for the first time in the loading dock area of Nike town. Christian and I bonded day one of orientation and he would give me a ride home every night we worked with each other. One evening after our shift Chris said his wife picking us up and that was when I met Francis. Francis was always nice and kind to me from the start. Francis and bully boy would pick us up for a while and I enjoyed talking story with her. Francis would bless me with her ono meals she made for Christian. She would tell Christian share with Gary. Oh boy it was ono! Christian would always remind me too remind him do not forget to wash and take home Tupperware. Lol 😂! You know who was the Boss. Great memories of this angel. Francis was a nice, caring lady with a beautiful smile 😊 and best of all a heart of gold.

I remember meeting Francis in my early days working night shift at Nike. Christian and I had an instant bond from day 1 and he would give me a ride home after our night shift. Francis came to pick us up at Nike and that was my introduction to this beautiful lady. Francis & bully boy came to pickup Dad and his sidekick. Francis was so nice & kind to me from day 1. I remember francis always had a welcoming smile and a kind word every time I saw her. Even when she was not there she would bless me with delicious dinners Christian would share with me. Francis would pack enough for Chris & I. I also remember Christian would always remind me to remind him not to forget the Tupperware and make sure it was washed. You know who was boss. Lol 😂
