Celebrating the Vibrant Life of Guillermo Ben Ancheta

March 25, 1966 - June 27, 2025

We gather to celebrate the beautiful life of Guillermo Ben Ancheta, a man whose kindness and unwavering support enriched the lives of all who knew him. Born on March 25, 1966, in the Philippines, Guillermo's hardworking spirit and confident nature were an inspiration to many.

His generous heart made him a beloved husband to Maricel Ancheta and a devoted father to his children: daughters Geraldine Horeses and Jazelyn Ancheta, and son Jordan Ancheta. Guillermo's family was his greatest joy, and his legacy of love and support lives on through them.

On June 27, 2025, in Lana'i City, Lana'i, Guillermo's earthly journey came to an end, but the impact of his vibrant spirit continues to resonate. His life reminds us of the power of kindness and the strength found in unwavering support.

As we remember Guillermo, we celebrate his remarkable journey and the love he shared so freely. May his memory inspire us all to embrace life with the same warmth and enthusiasm he so effortlessly embodied.

When I was a kid, uncle Gimo came to visit us in Oahu. I was so excited to show him my loose tooth. When I told him about my tooth, he bent down to my level and said "oya lemme see" and so I smiled and wiggled it, and he quickly grabbed my loose tooth and pulled it out, it wasn't even fall out ready kine loose lol. I will never forget that moment lol. Uncle Gimo is one of the realist people I know, he is one of the first people I told to privately about my girlfriend being pregnant, instead of the traditional "congratulations" he was the only one to tell me "fak*p boy" and we just started cracking up, so me, uncle Gimo, and my dad just talked story about it and made me even more excited to become a father. I will never forget that night with him. Thank you uncle for the advise, for the support, and for the laughs, I love you uncle, till we meet again. -Rvin, are as uncle said it, "aabin"
