Bartolome, Carolina Savella

MAR 22, 1954 - FEB 10, 2026

Carolina Savella Bartolome, 71, passed away peacefully on February 10, 2026, in Honolulu, Hawaii. She was born on March 22, 1954, in Cabugao, Philippines, where she spent her early years surrounded by the love of her family and the vibrant culture of her hometown.

Carolina was a devoted wife to Angel Bartolome, with whom she shared a lifetime of love, partnership, and cherished memories. Together they built a beautiful family, raising two children—Jeffrey Bartolome and Maricel Narciso—who were her greatest pride and joy.

A joyful spirit, Carolina was widely known for her positivity, warmth, and infectious smile. She had a gift for making people feel welcome and uplifted, no matter the circumstance. Her love of social media, especially YouTube, kept her entertained, informed, and connected. Whether she was watching uplifting videos, or sharing laughs with her family, she embraced technology as a way to bring more happiness into her life.

Carolina is survived by her beloved husband Angel, her children Jeffrey and Maricel, her two grandchildren, and six loving siblings, all of whom will forever carry her memory in their hearts. Her legacy of kindness, joy, and unwavering love for her family will continue to live on through all who were blessed to know her.

Carolina will be deeply missed, but her bright spirit and the happiness she brought to others will never be forgotten.

The beauty of a truly loving aunt is that she often plays a unique role—she's part parent, part best friend, and part co-conspirator. She knows how to bring the joy, whether through a shared joke, a tradition, or just her infectious energy. Her love doesn't come with strings attached; it's a constant, steady presence. Aunts are the ones who stand beside their nieces and nephews, holding their hands for a while and their hearts forever. ❤️🥹
