Steven Allen Souza

SEP 8, 1955 - FEB 13, 2026

Steven Allen Souza, born September 8, 1955, in Honolulu, Hawaii, passed away peacefully on February 13, 2026, in his hometown of Honolulu. He leaves behind a legacy defined by music, creativity, and a generous spirit that touched countless lives.

Steven was a gifted musician whose love for music shaped his entire life. He played a wide variety of instruments and shared his talents in several local bands, bringing joy to audiences and forging lifelong friendships along the way. Whether he was performing on stage or playing casually among friends, Steven's music was an expression of his heart—vibrant, soulful, and unmistakably his.

He is survived by his beloved daughter, Ashlyn Souza, and his loving brother, Gene Souza, both of whom will forever carry his memory with them. Steven will be remembered for his warm humor, his passion for the arts, and the kindness he showed to everyone fortunate enough to know him.

His melody lives on in the hearts of those he loved.
