Celebrating the Bright Journey of Federico Singson Bello

July 18th, 1937 – March 3rd, 2026

We celebrate the beautiful life of Federico Bello, a man known for being Kind, Supportive, Hardworking, and Compassionate. Born in Santa Maria, Ilocos Sur, Philippines, Federico grew up valuing family, good food, and honest work.

He carried those values across every chapter, even starting a new role in skilled trade maintenance later in life, showing that energy and curiosity never fade. His steady hands and can-do spirit made each task a success.

Cooking, though, was his greatest joy. Federico filled kitchens with the rich aromas of Filipino favorites, especially his famous pancit, delighting everyone who gathered around his table. Nothing pleased him more than seeing friends and family leave with full bellies and happy hearts.

Federico's love stretched wide through his children—Crescencia Vilorio, Josephine Bona, Jenny Ann Ancheta, Geraldine Bustamante, Richard Bello, Roland Bello, and Vincent Bello—and onward to 22 grandchildren and 20 great-grandchildren. Each visit, meal, and bit of advice showed how deeply he cherished his growing family.

He passed in Waipahu, HI, leaving memories that feel bright and present. As we think of Federico, we picture lively gatherings, generous plates, and a man who found purpose in caring for others. Let's honor him by sharing good food, supporting one another, and keeping his warm spirit alive in every joyful moment.
