Phyllis Jean Roldan Chan, 74, of Haleiwa, Hawaii, passed away peacefully on March 16, 2026, in Honolulu. She was born on June 13, 1951, in Kahuku, Hawaii, to Faustino and Felicidad Roldan, who instilled in her the values of faith, family, and dedication to community that guided her life.

Phyllis devoted her career to education, serving as a respected and caring teacher at a local high school. She was known for her patience, kindness, and commitment to her students, many of whom remembered her as a steady source of encouragement and inspiration. Teaching was more than a profession for Phyllis—it was a calling, and she carried it out with genuine love and purpose.

She is survived by her beloved husband, Roy Chan; her sister, Pamela Roldan-Thomas; and several nieces and nephews, who will cherish her wisdom, warmth, and gentle humor. Phyllis will be remembered for her quiet strength, generous heart, and lasting impact on those whose lives she touched.
