I will always remember and miss her caring and gentle nature.. It'll be hard knowing that I will not be scolded for saying "Good bye", because it's how she always said, "it's not good bye! It's see you later!" Later? It'll be a VERY long wait..I'm glad that you've returned home, the way you've always wanted, and to see Lolo Eddie, It's been a long wait.. You'll forever be in my heart and in my memories!! I will always love you, and miss you Lola!! 94-191 Loaa Street, Waipahu, HI 96797 8083687945Granddaughter##imported-begin##Michelle Ingano##imported-end##

I miss Milagrining very much! She called me on Monday, April 25th, and we had a lengthy conversation. We were laughing and joking around. The following day, Tuesday, we were on the phone again. Since she was almost 6 years older, she was giving me a lot of advice regarding a lot of things. I did not realize that it was sort of a farewell talk. When Odette called me two days later to say that her Mom was shaking and did not feel very well, I thought that it was going to go away, but it did not. Then, the following day, I was shocked to hear from Odette that Milagrining's blood pressure was awfully low! She said that if I had something to say to her, she would put the phone on her ear and I could tell her whatever it was I wanted for her to hear. I still could not believe that she is gone!!! I loved her like a sister! 2918 Ricky Drive 518-833-6805cousin & best friend##imported-begin##Valentina Nantes Madrid##imported-end##

Dear Relatives and Friends, Tia Milagrang died on Easter (Easter is celebrated in the Catholic Church for 8 days, from April 24-May 1). She also died while the Church is preparing to celebrate the Feast of Divine Mercy and beatification of Pope John Paul II this past weekend. These are no mere coincidences. Knowing Tia Milagrang's love of God and His Church, there can be no better time to go home to the Lord than this time. God called her to Himself one last time, and I believe that she is like our Mother Mary, said, "Let it be done to me according to Your word." I am sad that Tia Milagrang is gone from this world. We will miss her caring ways, her gentle words, her love of family and relatives, and the many fond memories she left behind. But life is not ended for her; it has changed. Her soul lives on happily forever. I am sure she is up there in heaven now celebrating with the Saints with whom she had great devotion. I believe there she will meet her parents Lolo Andres and Tia Uliang, Tio Eddie her husband, aunts and uncles, my dad (Paco), and other brothers and sisters who have gone before her. It will be one big family reunion up there, just like in Project 8; but better. I will be remiss if I don't mention Tia Milagrang's great devotion to the Holy Face of Jesus, Divine Mercy, the Holy Rosary and many other devotions. She is, in a great sense, the ambassador of Christ to the world. She is a true model of faith. Tia Milagrang loved Jesus very much. She couldn't help but talk to people about this love and His Holy Face. Now she doesn't have to believe it. She knows! She now beholds the face of Jesus. We continue to celebrate her life and the fulfillment of the promise for her at baptism. She is God's beloved daughter. The Church claimed her for Christ. A true handmaid of the Lord, she now enjoys the great promise that was given to her by the Lord. This promise was mentioned in Revelation 22:4-5: "They shall see His face and his name will be on their foreheads. Night will be no more, nor will they need light from lamp or sun, for the Lord God shall give them light, and they shall reign forever and ever." Tia Milagrang is dwelling in the house of the Lord. She is resting in God's favor, a place where there is light, joy and peace. Thank you Tia Milagrang so much. We'll miss you. Let's continue to also pray for one another, especially Odette, Bebong, Taddy, Chit, Chito and grandkids. Odette and family, thank you for sharing your mom with us. With Christ's love, Rod (Paco's son).
