To my dear loving Kung,I will love you and miss you with all my heart. You were one of those people that I could lean on and you would love me no matter what I did. You were like a father to me. I know when I die, you will be up there to greet me with open arms and the same heart full of love that you always have had. We will never forget you because you have made a big impact on each and every person you have meet in your life. I know right now that you are in a better place and I wish you the safest trip possible. I love you Kung and Thank you for the wonderful memories you have given me.

To my Kung,Thank you for being my grandfather. You made me laugh and appreciate that family is important, and can come in many forms. I will remember all the good times- camping on the beach, that old white VW van you would take us to the beach in, you singing along to "Sweet Lady of Waihole," and so many others. I love you and will miss always. Granddaughter###imported-begin##Jeanette Bond###imported-end##
