Aunty Lucy & cousins,We are soooo sorry for your loss...Uncle will truly be remembered. We will all miss his infectious laugh. Every holiday, or family gathering we had, uncle has always brought a light to them with his loving smile and humor!!! I am so sorry we all can't be there, and know that I would be there if I could. Aunty be strong and know that uncle is in a better place and is not suffering any pain he might have had before passing. Also know that we are always here for you guys. Even though we are miles and miles away and in another state, we love you and are always here for you guys! With chokest love,The Rosa Ohana Banks, Oregon 503-758-1053Neice###imported-begin###Rosa Ohana###imported-end##

Alan P. from St. Theresa church asked my wife, Ami if I went to school with Arden, looking at my class of 1988 coffee mug on my desk I found Arden's name scribed on it. Since I am not on facebook I am cannot recall what he actually looked like back in high school, but just wanted to take this time to send my condolences to the his wife, kids and his family members. So young to have the LORD GOD take Arden away from us. As a fellow father of also three kids, I am having a hard time to find words to express my sorrow for your lost. Lucy please stay strong for the health and welfare of your kids.
