Oscar "Cary" Victorio

JUL 13, 1949 - JUL 19, 2011

Oscar "Cary" Geronimo Victorio was born in Manila Philippines to Dominador Macapagal Victorio (hails from Cabiao, Nueva Ecija & Lubao Pampanga) and Ana Calvadores Geronimo (hails from Peñaranda, Nueva Ecija). He grew up in Caloocan City, spends his college years in Puerto Princesa City Palawan, where he became an alumnus of Holy Trinity University. Oscar, well-known as "CARY" to his family and friends; married to Benilda "Nilda" Aguinaldo Aguilar on May 16, 1976; together they built a wonderful life and a loving family in Mariveles Bataan Philippines. Cary is a responsible official, a mentor and an active member of religious, sports, private and public community services; and to name a few are as follows: Family Life Apostolate, Couples for Christ, Knights of Columbus (Worthy Grand Knight, 07/08), Kiwanis Club International BEPZ (Meritorious Award), Adoracion Nocturna Filipina, Marriage Encounter Foundation of the Philippines, & etc. Cary is a recognized and respected government official, a hardworking and devoted employee; with a commendable of over 35 years in government service, with Philippine Economic Zone Authority (Bataan). Upon his retirement, Cary and his family migrated to Honolulu Hawaii with the support and sponsorship of Mr. Pepito Borce & Mrs. Ernestina Aguilar Borce, where Cary eventually became a United States Immigrant. Cary is an outstanding chess player (remarkable participant and top-ranked player of Philippine Open International Chess championship during 80's and early 90's), and among other his sports includes darts, bowling and billiards/pool. He is a humble servant, team player and an organizer of community services and sports events of his hometown for the benefit of his organization, community and the youth. He is a singer, a pianist, a drummer, a passionate guitarist, a well-rounded band player... talented and a Musician at Heart. He had a heart of gold and extremely great sense of humor by nature; an extraordinary person, loving husband, caring father and dear colleague & friend to everyone he knows. He is survived by his wife

Gia, Tita Nilda, and the rest of the family, condolence po sa paglisan sa atin ni Tito Cary. There were only a few times na nagmeet kami, ng daddy ni Gia. Despite the limited interaction, malaking bagay sa amin na naging kaibigan ni Gia, na pasalamatang may daddy Cary na nagpalaki sa kanya on who she became eventually. I know how it will be hard for Gia to have lost a dad, and for the family to have lost a father, and I just want to say, that it may not be easy, pero sama-sama, makakapagpatuloy po tayo. Be strong and be firm, stay smiling, even in the middle of the pain, madali sabihin pero mahirap gawin. Nonetheless, make it an inspiration na hindi naman gugustuhin ni Daddy Cary na palagi kayong nalulungkot. Hindi naman sya tunay na nawala na at umiwan na sa atin. Gia, at sa buong pamilyang naiwan, kasama nyo pa din siya, hanggat kasama nyo ang isa't isa. Na-imbibe niya sa inyo ang mga bahagi ng pagkatao niya at ito ay hindi mamamatay kailanman.Be strong po. My prayers are with you all.Hugs, Gia. Quezon City, Philippines 639162916110Bestfriend ni Gia Cristina, daughter niya###imported-begin###Pia Montalban###imported-end###
