Brother, I miss you so much!! I can't believe this is it. No more random calls, texts, pictures texts, nope nothing. I wish there was a way to get you back home where you belong, even I know heaven is a much better place than here. No more pumping your sounds coming to my house no more fighting whos parent is whos when we get in trouble...lol. No more planning for the next party, birthday or any family event. Halloween just won't be the same....Christams won't be the same, now we gotta train Pono to be Santa's helper..lol. Not that he's not already a great helper, it's just funny to see you in the pictures over the years we've had our family Christmas parties and where are you, right next to Santa reading the names for him because every year he forget his reading glasses. It's going to be hard to go to Chuckee Cheese and look at Chuckee and be like "my brother wanted to shoot you"...lol. I can't wait for the day that we meet again I just hope Jesus accepts my friend request when I hit submit...I'm going to do everything I can to become irresistable to him because I know just how bad he needed you to work in house and I want to be there with you. I love you always and forever, eternally, inwards and outwards, through and through. Until we meet again. 828-A Hooulu Street (808) 783-5735Sister##imported-begin##Chantel Makuaole##imported-end##

My deepest condolences to your family for the loss of Micah. I was his Health & Weight Training teacher at Kalaheo High (Mr. P). Micah was one of the ABSOLUTE BEST students I've ever had the pleasure to meet. He was a sincere young man who had his head on straight. Very respectful and most of all caring. Although I will not be able to attend the services please know that I am praying for Micah and your family. Although we have lost his presence, his spirit will never fade. God bless you all! P.O.
