There's not a day that goes past that you are far from our thoughts and never our hearts. Your heart of gold was quick to always help as well as worry, about the family for that's what was most important to you and ever on your mind. You were the glue that kept us all together. Now there's a void in each & every one of our hearts that won't be filled till we see you again...At first i was mad, & didn't understand. But now I know God needed you for His plan. It wont be revealed till our time on earth ends. Each passing day seems, like forever it's been. One day closer to being with my Nana again... to laugh, to hold you, see that smile on your face. To tell you I love you over & over again. We all miss you dearly!!! C u in a lil bit mom! I know what you meant. Love you 1015 Hui street kailua, HI 96734 8083667496son##imported-begin##Kenny##imported-end##
