Brother Chano, so shocked and saddened...but I believe you are now worshipping with the angels, playing the congas and rejoicing in the Lord. Although I knew you for just a short time, I could always count on seeing your Sunday morning smile and your encouraging words as I sat next to you at church. Our prayer is that both your immediate and church families will be comforted and strengthened each day. Eh,Chano Baby, it is so hard to accept that youre gone its already hard that Sweetie gone. I just so happy for you and Sweetie. No more suffering but just Praising the Lord with the rest of our loved ones. Thank you for everything you did for me and my family. Especially the time you and Tina took us to Firestone and bought us 4new tires for my truck. I know you really cared about us. I remember when Elsie was in a car accident you rush to the hospital and i know you was worried about her. And even though Baba do bad things you loved him. Whenever Baba came to Waimanalo (hardly ever) you was happy to see him. You even was nice to Kalehua and i thank you for that. You and Tina so kind to us. You made me laugh plenty time but sometimes you made me mad. One time you call me the devils triangle because of my nose. I was shame because you said em in front Steven them and they went bust out laughing. But i gotta admit that was funny. And when Omi was going wit Steven you was trying to give him the arm deodorant and you told him take this i only trying to help you and Omi said mom Chano making trouble but at the same time she was laughing. You really funny. But i love you and i miss you very much. Cant wait to see you. Bye Baby Sister###imported-begin##Doll Kealoha###imported-end##

Unko i miss you so much, i can't believe your not here. I miss your laugh, your jokes, your smile,your voice, our long conversations, your singing even tho you make up your own words. You was a hard worker and a smart man, a kind boss to your workers and you was a generous giver, a good friend, always thinking about people, always had a soft heart for kids, you blessed everyone, so how can anyone think wrong about you? that i will never understand, those people are just stupid and Im happy to say i have no regrets, none at all. Our hearts are broken because your not here. Thank you so much, for everything you and aunty Tina did for me and my family. Thank you for loving us so much, and treating us like your own. You was so special to me, i loved, cherished and respected you unko, my heart feels more empty now that you and aunty Sweetie left us, but, im happy that your in heaven.
