I was so sorry to hear of cousin Biggie's passing. He was a loving friend to all, and I enjoyed seeing him when I visited the Lai Hook side of the family. He leaves a tremendous legacy through his example as husband, father, brother, and cousin. The world needs more like him. Aloha always,~ Aloha e tutu. My grandma Katchie and aunty Happy will be attending tomorrow. I had met some of your ohana at our Ha'aheo-Mokuiki gathering in Laie last summer. I didn't know our ohana was soo big. My great grandparents are Rose Kaomea Keawemauhili and David Kamauoha Jr. Tutu Kaomea mother was Kaomea Haaheo sister to your tutu Ana lillii Haaheo :) I grew up near the old Haaheo ohana family cemetery behind the cackle fresh egg store. My grandma them used to tell me of how the Lai Hook family used to come n visit and pop fireworks there. May our ohana be blessed and prayers for you and yours...Aloha distant cousin###imported-begin###Jeff Renaud###imported-end###
