Rose Young Tam-Hoy

FEB 18, 1923 - OCT 13, 2011

Rose Young Lokelani Lum Tam-Hoy was born in Honolulu, Hawaii on February 18, 1923. She was the daughter of Agnes Kahoe & Lum Sui. Rose was 88 years of age and passed away at Queen's Medical Center peacefully on October 13th, 2011. Rose was a proud graduate of St. Andrews Priory, class of 1941 and remained an active alumnus and church member. Auntie Loke, as her dear friends called her, shared the love of Hawaiian culture and her heritage through quilting she learned from her mother at an early age. She carried on the legacy by teaching at various locations throughout the islands that included: The Hilton Hawaiian Village, Kaimuki Library, The Bishop Museum, and one of her favorite places, Hotel Hana Maui. She shared her passion and talent with so many and was well known for her hand made Hawaiian quilts and pillows. Rose led a very active life and belonged to nearly 30 clubs and organizations including Hale O Nā Ali'i O Hawai'i as dedicated life member for over 45 years, Nā Wāhine Hui O Kamehameha (Women's Auxiliary of the Royal Order of Kamehameha), The Ahahui Ka'ahumanu, the Daughters of Hawai'i, the Ahahui Ā-lelo Hawai'i, and the Kuini Pi'olani Hawaiian Civic Club just to name a few. She loved her friends and her social calendar was always full. This is what kept her going and was the fuel to her fire! Rose had a zest for life, she taught us not to worry about what others think and to just live life to the fullest. She was an inspiration to all. Rose made you feel so special and was always interested in how you were doing, not herself. She was never afraid of telling you like it is, but also telling you just how much she loved you. Auntie Loke made new friends everywhere she would go and just had a magnetic personality that lit up any room! We will all miss her affectionate hugs and kisses, her energy that woke us up at all times of the night, and most importantly her love that she gave so strongly to each and every one of us. Rose Young Lokelani Lum Tam-Hoy is survived by her sister Florence (Gilbert) Lum Minn, her children Harold Jr (Arlene) Tam-Hoy, Agnes Makalii, Barry

My grandmother, known as "Aunty Rose" to many, was the light of many parties. She loved going to parties and spending time with family and friends. She also loved fashion and is an impeccable dresser. She has fashion sense that no one else has. She loved wearing a hat with aloha attire. She was also kind-hearted and humble taking us 4 grandchildren in to live with her which I doubt she mentioned to others. We called her "Kaimuki Grandma." I appreciate everything she has done for my father Harold and my mother Arlene as well as for myself and my siblings. No words can express how grateful I am for her kindness. I will really really miss her. I take some comfort knowing that she is with our Grandpa and our kupuna (her mother Agnes Kahoe from Kaupo Maui) in Heaven now. I love and miss you, Kaimuki Grandma! I will really really miss you. XOXOX POB 700 New Port Richey FL 7278594635 Granddaughter###imported-begin###Lana###imported-end###

Last year we visited Grandma and she noticed Kaela's Fancy clothes/Jewelry and said, " Oh so fancy, just like Grandma!" It really meant alot to me to see how much Grandma loved my daughter. One day during our visit, Grandma had on white fancy sunglasses and guess what? Kaela had on the exact pair of white sunglasses! Hopefully my daughter, Kaela Hokulani, can carry on that sense of style that Grandma Tam-Hoy always had! From her Fancy Dresses to Hats she was always proud of who she was. We admired her for being such a strong spirited woman who always spoke her mind. She was always so generous, loving and we are proud to have had her as our Grandma. We will miss our Grandma Tam-Hoy so much and feel so blessed to have had her in our lives for so long. She was an amazing person who we truly admired for the person she was. 480 Front St North Granddaughter###imported-begin###Kylene Pualani Ruark###imported-end###

My grandparents helped raise me and I am forever grateful for their overwhelming amount of love they gave & for making me who I am today. I took advantage of all my time with them, never missing a moment we loved each other with everything we got. We had fun and life was an adventure with my grandma. She made me laugh and always had stories to tell about her many outings with her dear friends. She had a zest for life and her social calendar was always full. She loved her sweets that made her that much sweeter. My grandma defined class, style, and charisma and I want to celebrate her life by carrying on her legacy. I will continue to live the life she wanted me to because when I smile, I know she is smiling from above too :) Although I will miss her dearly, I know that my grandma is at peace now with my grandpa. They are finally united together again in a sacred and beautiful place called heaven. Las Vegas NV 702.336.2500granddaughter###imported-begin###Shelby###imported-end###

OUR SINCEREST CONDOLENCES TO THE TAM-HOY FAMILY. YOUR MOM WAS A SPECIAL SPIRIT. SHE WAS ALWAYS SO ENTHUSIASTIC ABOUT LIFE, ALWAYS "ON THE GO". SHE WAS "MRS. ALOHA". I'LL NEVER FORGET HER ENTHUSIASM ABOUT MY BAKED BEANS AT OUR CLASS REUNION. SHE HAD A COUPLE SERVINGS, AND THOROUGHLY ENJOYED IT. SHE WARMED MY HEART. MAY GOD BLESS ALL OF YOU.
