It's only been three weeks since you left this life taking a big part of me with you. I still call the phone in Ewa only to hear your voice. It soothes me to hear your voice. I will never forget it as long as I live. But you lived a long life. You provided nurturing love in bringing us up. You gave untiringly to provide for our needs. You were the glue that kept the family together. Now it is time for you reap the fruits of your labor here on earth. Rest in peace Mom! Enjoy your reward of everlasting life with our creator! Your great smile, the tremendous warmth of Aloha that you share could only be instilled from those that love and care for you. It is a great honor bestowed upon your mom, Peggy Rose. Grandma, I am so happy that God granted me the opportunity to come home and care for you in your final days. Those few nights we spent together have made your passing much easier to bear. Not many of us have the opportunity to laugh, cry, and tell each other how much we love each other before we part. I will cherish that forever. Although I am far away, I am who I am because of your love and support. I thank God for having you in my life. You have raised us well. I know you are in heaven with grandpa, auntie Char, and all the rest of the family having 'good fun'. Your work here is complete, lay down your burden and rest, says the Lord. I love you!! I remember my Aunty Peggie as loving to golf at the Pali golf course and getting stuck on the 19th hole, which is where she found the sweet smelling ginger blossoms and would do some pruning, bringing back an arm load of flowered stems. She was my dad's (Bushy) cousin and when my mom (Lani) was dying 15 years ago I remembered when she called and talked her days before she died that made my mom happy. My dad's sister Lani Olivera of Hana just died on Sat. Nov. 5th so she'll have company probably on the 19th hole up there and Dad (Bushy) won't be far behind as he is falling a lot and has broken ribs from it and into dementia, he just got out of the hospital and is back in the rest home on the mend. He has some long term memory and talks Hawaiian and sing old Hawaiian songs but no one understands him so I will go over and sit with him a while and tell him his sister Lani has passed away. At 93 he is still hanging in there he remembers his cousin Peggie so he will talk stories of the past. My love and prayers are with all of you.
