I clearly remember riding my bike as a teenager up to the steps in the garage and calling out to Steven like it was yesterday. But, it was over 40 years ago! WOW! We always had fun and learned a lot at the Sonoda's home. Mrs. Sonoda would make everyone feel welcome and take care of whatever we needed. I remember Mrs. Sonoda as a kind and gentle woman that everyone should try to emulate. So glad my grandchildren and I was able to visit before we lost her. That will always be special. Mr. Sonoda, please call me anytime if you need anything @224-4000. I loved what you told me about her the other day when we were all sad.....what a great memory for a wonderful wife. We will all miss her!##imported-begin##Steve Holck##imported-end##

With deepest sympathy to the Sonoda family. I remember hanging out with Jay during our teenage years and whenever I went in the house, Mrs. Sonoda was always so gracious and offered me something to eat or drink. That is how I will always remember her. Rest in Peace.##imported-begin##Rodney Lee##imported-end##
