Dear Michi and Gerri:Sorry to hear about the passing of your dear mother. May your faith and hope in Jehovah carry you and your family through this difficult time.Nicole and I still hold the fond memories of our trip to Yokohama for the 2003 international convention. We remember your mom (she must have been 88 yrs. old) and her roommate, Sister Chee, so amazing, despite their age, were able to keep up with the group. What an inspiration to all of us as we "feel" the effects of the years going by, to keep going in Jehovah's service. Take care and may Jehovah continue to comfort you.Christian love,Vicky & Nicole Hamasaki##imported-begin##Vicky Hamasaki##imported-end##

To the Family of the Late Mrs. Tanaka,My sincerest condolences. Your mother was an exceptional woman to have raised such successful daughters and to have been by your dad's side throughout the many years with Green Thumb. I empathize with your loss of your mother. Deepest sympathy to you all.Aloha Menemena ~ Michele Ikeda##imported-begin##Michele Ikeda##imported-end##
