I served under "Sgt K", as we referred to him, at Camp Red Cloud Korea 1973-74. He was simply the best Sergeant you could hope for. He was firm but good humored and kind. He could be unorthodox at times, which, as a draftee, I appreciated. A lot of us rode bicycles around the base. Sgt K got a Korean bike, one of these industrial looking rides. He would ride that thing to the comm center we worked in. Eventually brass decided that sergeants riding bicycles was "unbecoming a non-commissioned officer". Sgt K and at least one other Sgt I knew of had to stop riding. As with everything else he adjusted with grace... - Chuck Laiti - Former 51st signal Bn A Co. Comm Center Platoon Sp4.

Our sympathy & love to the Keeaunui Ohana. We knew Bob as teacher, coach & friend. Family of Coach Bob, mahalo for sharing him with the whole community. He has had such a positive influence especially on the young people all over the state. Bob, we will always love you, & look forward to seeing you at that great potluck in the next life. Children, grandchildren & siblings, pamper yourselves every day & at the same time, think of Bob! And take precious care! Love, always, Cheryl & Dustin Tang-Chung##imported-begin##cheryl I chung##imported-end##

Hey Uncle, one memory stands out and probably sets up most of my memories of time spent with you. It was Jareds 1st birthday and I hadn't seen you since in your words " doo doo pants days", but it never felt that way with you. Conversation was always normal as if time between visits had been hours versus years. Second of course was the music, and I've always said this but watching you and Uncle Joe lead all the Aunties and Uncles in song at every get together was so great. You will be greatly missed by all who knew you, and those who didn't really missed out on a good time.##imported-begin##David Laamea Scott##imported-end##

Ahui hou, Uncle. I'll miss you. You're one of the few who gets me. I'll miss your humor and love. I'll miss your music and wit. My love to my cousins and their families I know you miss him but you have been so very blessed to have him and we will always have his love and the many things he taught us and shared with us. Ahui hou, Uncle! Ahui hou, Kamehameha!##imported-begin##Pono Piimauna##imported-end##

Hey Bob, You are truly one-of-a-kind. A "specialty". We will miss your jokes especially the "up for grabs" ones, all in fun. So many precious memories of the Kailua Racqueteers, potlucks, music and the stuff you put up with, from us "titas". Oh yeah, and the tournaments!!! I'll miss our chats, the emails and phone calls. Most of all, I'll miss that great personality & running into you at the mall, grabbing lunch. Life just won't be the same without you, Bob & it saddens me greatly. Aloha Always, your friend, Pat##imported-begin##Pat Dilliner##imported-end##

Missing you papa like crazy!!! Since the day you answered God's call, there has not been a day that I haven't thought of you!!! It's 12:43am as I write this and this is usually the time me and you would be on the phone laughing telling jokes to eachother!!! ;) Well, i know that now you are in God's beautiful palace laughing and rejoicing with Ma!!!! You guys must be having a blast!!!! Well papa, I love you and I thank you for all you have taught me and for the values you instilled in me! You and Ma were the most WONDERFUL grandparents and I will forever hold you close to my heart!!!!!!###imported-begin##Trina Keaunui Byrd###imported-end##
