Dear Arnold, Diane, and family, Our thoughts and prayers for you all... We do regret not having the opportunity to personally express our condolences to your mother Mrs. Awong. In his final days on earth, you all gave him the greatest gift to carry out his dying wish to go to his house. We hope it gives you some peace to know you were there for him. Now, Mr. Awong is with our Lord and the o'hana in Heaven. We know you will have a ceremony reflective of him! God be with each of you during this season of mourning. Please take care because your dad would also want that for you all. God Bless. Peace and love always, Neil and Bobbie##imported-begin##Neil and Bobbie Minami##imported-end##

Dear Awong Family: I want to send my condolences to your family on your loss. Death is something that pains us all, so I would like to share this encouraging scripture with the family, it's Rev. 21:4 "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away. - This text gives us the assurance of our loving Heavenly Father; God's promise to reverse death effect with a resurrection hope on a paradise earth. So soon we'll be able to see our love ones who have temporally fallen asleep, again##imported-begin##Tiffani##imported-end##
