I met Nolan in Moab about 10 years ago on a Jeeping trip. I remembered him as he always had a bright smile when we were on the trails. One couldn't help but see him smile and have to smile back. His gentle spirit made such an impression on me that when I heard of the news of him passing on an old jeep forum that I just had to say that I am glad that for one moment in time I was lucky enough to share a laugh with him. My condolences to his family. I will treasure his memory.

How I will miss Nolan's smiling face when that aircraft door opens. He always treated me & my flying partners w/kindness, never rushing us off the aircraft or ignoring our concerns. I know there must have been many times when he was thinking "gunfunnit, Nancy! Like we don't have enough to do", but he never showed that ... Always kind, always smiling, always professional ...the epitome of a gentleman. He was the same when he would be on on a flight I was working to or from Los Angeles. Never causing us work, only wanting apple juice or once in awhile deciding to take a walk on the wild side & ordering a cranapple juice! I would tease him then & he would just smile...I think about how much I will miss him & yet I know it pales in comparison to how you, his family will miss him. I hope & pray that the Universe surrounds you with her love & that God, your friends & family hold you close, comfort & protect you. I am sending you love too.##imported-begin##Nancy Ahern##imported-end##

I am so sorry to read of Nolan Raboy's death. I always appreciated the work and dedication of our Delta employees-we were a family whether we knew each other personally or not. I flew HNL for years-I am proud we had people like Nolan as part of our team that makes Delta such a good airline to fly and be a part. May God hold you in His arms during the days ahead. My name is David Matthews and Nolan and I worked at Western and Delta over the years. Our hire dates were very close to one another. Nolan was a good man. I only knew him at work and that was always a pleasure to be on the job with him. He was full of knowledge and all the guys really respected that. So tragic that he should be taken from us in such an ungodly way. My heart goes out to the family and friends at this time of sorrow. He will be in our hearts and minds forever... God bless all of you David Matthews Torrance Ca###imported-begin##David Matthews###imported-end##
