To my nieces and nephews,Your dad was a good and wonderful man, loving, kind and wise. He lived his life to the fullest and he had set a fine example for all of you to follow. He will forever be missed and loved in our hearts. We will never forget his love and his presence in our lives. He wanted what was best for all of you and he was a dad that all of you can be proud of. I thank him always for who he was and what he stood for. Rest in peace Quirino and thank you for loving my sister. NT Cyn

Aloha,My condolences to the the Domingo Family for your loss. Quirino Domingo was one of the best bakers-pastry craftsmen I had the pleasure to be acquainted with in my 50 years of baking. A gentle man with a pleasant demeanor and a great passion for life.It was his dedication and hard work that made him and myself as his business partner a success. Hats off for a giant of a man who hardly had a bad word to say about others and did his own thing with class and perseverance.Quirino SR. You will be missed and may god bless you with his grace for eternity.Richard R. Wagner

I feel so honored to have known him. A perfect example of a husband and father. Used to work 3 jobs at one time at Alexander Young Bakery, A-1 Bakery and Honolulu Business College to be able to support a wife and children and yet still made time to cook for them before he left for work. He surely touched the lives of those he loved. Will surely miss him. I know that God has welcomed him home. Sincerest condolences to his family. Uncle Virg & Aunty Aurellia
