Antoine "Marie" Gascon Fukuda, of Honolulu, beloved wife, sister, hanai mom and aunt, passed away September 4, 2018 at the age of 62. She was born in Puunene, Maui on January 27, 1956, and was the second of six children born to parents Angel Sagadraca and Theresa (Gascon) Sagadraca.

She attended Kauluwela and Fern Elementary and Dole Intermediate Schools, graduated from Farrington High School, and received her Certified Nursing Assistant degree from Kapiolani Community College. Marie lived in Honolulu and was a member of St. John's Catholic Church.

One of the most important events in her life occurred on January 27, 2007 at Moanalua Gardens when she married the love of her life, Wade Takeo Fukuda.

She was kind, loving and willing to help all with whom she came in contact with and was influential in that she always lit up the room with her presence. While growing up, Marie enjoyed going to football games.

Family was very important to her, and she always attended the graduations of her nieces and nephews. Anything to do with family, she was always there. Marie worked very hard to provide a life that she wanted for herself and for her family.

Always striving to look her best, Marie enjoyed having her nails and hair done. She also loved to go jade shopping, and enjoyed listening to Hawaiian and Reggae music.
