“ Chris: Wanted to send you my condolences to you and your family. Uncle Chuck was such a loving, supportive, caring and funny person. And I am so blessed that I got to know him and be part of your family. We had such fun times growing up . I know this Saturday will be hard finally saying goodbye to him. But we are here for you. We are celebrating his life and I know everyone has that one special memory of him. You have all your memories close to your heart and in times you will be doing something or be somewhere and you may laugh or cry because you are thinking of him. I have those now and then when I think of my dad. Your mom and dad will finally be together again. My sister you take care and like your husband said , He got this and I believe that. Love you, Jameylani
