LETTING GO

By Judith Bullock Morse

The angels gathered near your side so very close to you For they knew the pain and suffering that you were going through.
I thought about so many things as I held tightly to your hand Oh, how I wished that you were strong and happy once again.

But your eyes were looking homeward to that place beyond the sky Where Jesus held His outstretched arms it was time to say, "Good-bye".
I struggled with my selfish thoughts for I wanted you to stay So we could walk and talk again like we did...just yesterday But Jesus knew the answer and I know you loved Him so So I gave to you life's greatest gift, the gift of letting go.

LIFE WELL LIVED

A life well lived is a precious gift, of hope and strength and grace, from someone who has made our world a brighter, better place.
It's filled with moments, sweet and sad, with smiles and sometimes tears, with friendships formed and good times shared, and laughter through the years.
A life well lived is a legacy, of joy and pride and pleasure, a living, lasting memory our grateful hearts will treasure.
