“ I still have a hard time believing that you are gone so fast. Although Im so sad that you are no longer physically in our midst, your loving memories are buried deep in my heart. Your mission is on earth is over and God has finally called you home to dwell with HIM in the most perfect place forever. Now God has finally freed me from the sorrow of parting and understand that it is only a distance of time until we meet again. So With that thought, I feel that the LOrd had wiped out all my tears. From tears to joy because your reward to dwell with the Lord came sooner than mine. So, Hallelujah Sister! Until we meet again! I love you and Lauren forever...

“ It shocked and saddened me to read of the loss of Ms. Fayloga. I was Lauren's kindergarten and 1st grade teacher at Kalihi Kai School. Ms. Fayloga was a most supportive, caring, and generous parent! I loved having her assist me in field trips and parties...she was always 'on top' of everything. The students and I loved having her! I recall how at the end of 1st grade she made personal photo albums for all the the students and even put together a photo album for me. Great memories are shared in there. I was blessed to have her as a 'room mother'. My deepest condolences to Lauren and family. Your mom is with the angels, helping and giving of herself as usual. May her love, memories, warmth and integrity give you strength to live your life to the fullest. Gratefully and Warmly, Mrs. Kamemoto
