

Margaret Balidio Corpuz

October 9, 1925 - February 27, 2020

Margaret was born in Honolulu, Hawaii on October 9th, 1925. In 1954 she married the love of her life, Marcelino Corpuz, and they were blessed with a son, Paul, in 1957, and a daughter, Elaine, in 1964. They resided in Honolulu until Marcelino's passing in 1990. In 2011, she moved to Dixon, California, where she lived with her daughter until she passed.

Margaret was a devoted wife, a stern mother who ran a tight ship, and a fiery but proud grandmother/great grandmother. She was an exceptional homemaker who enjoyed gardening, sewing, cooking, and outings with her friends. She also enjoyed traveling all over the world to see her family.

Margaret was the eighth of nine children born to Paulino and Juana Balidio, she has both gone home to heaven. Also preceding her in death are sisters Carmen, Mary, and Elizabeth, and brothers Marcelino, Scarius, Julian, and Johnny. She leaves behind brother Jesus in Angeles City, Philippines.

Margaret is survived by her son Paul, daughter Elaine, granddaughters Celina and Alyssa, grandson Skylar, and great-grandson Zane. She has numerous nieces and nephews scattered throughout Hawaii and California.

Final interment will be next to her husband Marcelino at the National Memorial Cemetery of the Pacific at Punchbowl Crater in Honolulu, Hawaii.

Sincere gratitude to the Pacific Senior Living Center, North Bay Vista Valley Hospital, and the Sutter Solano Medical Center in Vacaville, California for the tender care they provided Margaret.

Thank you to Diamond Head Mortuary for allowing us to celebrate Margaret's life.

The family would like to express their appreciation for all the prayers, gifts, and expressions of love during this difficult time.

A Celebration of Life will be held at a later date.

Cemetery

National Memorial Cemetery of the Pacific "Punchbowl"

2177 Puowaina Dr.

Honolulu, HI, 96813