“ The other day I was lying in bed and thinking of Dad, I prayed, Jesus please tell dad I miss him, love him, and can't wait to see him – and right that at that moment Jesus flashed an image to me of my dad laughing and nodding, something Dad would often do when he's talking story with friends and family (he was very gregarious and outgoing). I cried, knowing that despite the “one-way conversation” Jesus acknowledged He'd sent my message to my Dad and Dad in his sociable way nodded in response. Maybe Jesus was talking with Mom and Dad, and in the middle I interrupted them when Jesus said, O wait, Roland Jr. wanted to tell you something – he loves you and misses you! TY Jesus! :)
