“ I miss her calling me and saying, " Lets goto the Kahala for lunch." We would go and simply laugh about life. I could literally tell her ANYTHING without shame. How many people can you say that about? I would often try to make her blush and she would not. I asked her, " Didn't you hear what I said?" She said, " Yes, but I learned ignore your comments. They go in one ear and right out the other." :D. She would catch me hugging BooBoo and make fun of me. BooBoo would always jump in her purse. BooBoo was so excited to see Stephanie. Steph's favorite subject was her Kids Alana and Tia. Such a proud Mommy! I really do not know what more to say then to say I miss her and although we had our arguments she was my Good Friend! May she Rest in Peace. I miss you Stephanie.

“ I am so very sorry for the loss of Stephanie. I came upon this page yesterday when I googled Stephanie's name. I saw a woman on TV that reminded me of Steph and it made me wonder what she was up to these days. The last I heard from her was when I gave her a recommendation for a job at PATCH. She and I were co-workers in the early 2000's at APS Healthcare. She was a beloved member of our team. A kind and gentle soul. She was always meticulously groomed from head to toe and dressed to impress. She talked about her daughters frequently with such love. I was shocked to see this page and to realize that she is gone. I let our other co-workers know about it and they immediately responded with their wonderful memories of Steph. Everyone was surprised and so saddened by her untimely passing. Way too young to have left this world although her kindness touched many so she will always be remembered. I hope her daughters Alana and Tia are doing the best they can given this difficult situation. Know that your mom loved you with all her heart. Although we didn't keep in touch over the years, Steph was frequently on my mind and will live on forever in my heart. She will be greatly missed. My deepest condolences to her family and friends. May she Rest in Peace in the loving arms of the Lord.

“ The greatest memory I have with this wonderful lady was her teaching me how to drive and getting me ready for my drivers license. She would pick her sister and I up and she would let us drive her car where ever she needed to go or just where ever we wanted to go. She always took care of the both of us making sure we were okay and always treating us to outings and good meals. My favorite meal she treated us to was Thai food in North shore I will never forget that day. She always gave us advice and lessons in life. She was never a negative person she was always smiling and she was always dressed to impress and always had her game face on no matter where we went or what we did. I was in shock when I found this out, but I know she's always looking out for her two beautiful daughters Alana and Tia who I met when they were just both in elementary and intermediate. I know she's watching over her baby sister and other sisters as well, but her and baby sister had a special bond that i got to witness. Steph always told me that no matter what I'm still apart of the family which made me feel so good cuz the family was strong and fun people to be around. Rest with angels Stephanie see you when I get there. Thank you for everything you've done for me! -koa

“ I am deeply saddened by the loss of this wonderful mother, daughter, sister, and friend to many. My Condolences to Stephanie's daughters, and family. I would like everyone to know how I remember Steph and how I will continue to honor her life even if she's not here physically. Steph was like a blooming flower, most weeks she would sprout up in colors so brightly and boldly. Her appearance was known to always be and look put together. She was the most fashionista woman in Hawaii. Stephanie was the core friend who made additional friends everywhere she went. Her friends became our friends and her daughters aunties and uncles far and near. She always found the best quality in people, and made sure everyone around her felt loved. Losing my friend Steph made me realize how lonely life can be without people just like her. Thank you Doll for the years of friendship, love, crying sessions we shared and being a part of my life. I will light a candle in my home and continue to always replay my special memories I have with you.

I Love You, I Love You, and will always Love YOU STEPH,

Vina (sugar)
