“ I love you and I miss you, grandpa. The short period of time we spent together and the memories that we made will always stay with me. I wish you were here, I wish you could be with grandma and watch me and my siblings succeed. I remember that we ate at Denny's together and you told me haven't been spending that much time together, I still remember that day. I remember when I was a young kid and you would take care of me and take me out to help you with your errands. I miss the days that we would play outside, watch movies, and fix and build things around the house. I remember that you were a Lord of the Rings fan and you read all the books. We even got to watch the movies together. I look up to you, you are a great man and a great grandfather. It brings tears to my eyes that you can't be here. I also remember the day that you passed, when I came straight from school. It hurts me. But I know you're in a better place now, in Heaven. I love you grandpa Bill, till no end and till we meet again.

“ Bill was a wonderful, compassionate, and caring person. We will miss his pleasant greetings and fond farewells each time we had a visit. The last few years were rough, but we hope Jan & the Schmidt O'hana are able to find some comfort in knowing Bill is in a beautiful place, free of pain.

Our love and prayers are with all of you.....

“ My husband, Bill, was the most compassionate and selfless man I had ever known. He loved all sentient life. He lived his life helping others. Our relationship of over 20 years, was a yin/yang, a blend of consciousness that created a greater good in our lives together, and hopefully, others. We shared working together at the Cozy Cat Lodge, a cat boarding facility since 2000 at our home. the Lodge he Bill built himself.. He loved exploring the Universe through versatility of spiritual philosophies and became a member of the Theosophical Society for over 10 years. He was a spiritual scientist and colored everyone's life with a higher wisdom. He was an orchid enthusiast and built beautiful greenhouse as the entry to our business. Filled with colorful orchids, breathtaking beauty would bring such joy in his life each morning to start the day.

After three years of cancer, he has found such beautiful peace and bliss. He is free. As my beautiful soul mate I shall always honor the good we brought into each other's life. I shall miss him dearly. I find him in every cloud, every flower, every bird song and he fills my heart with glory.

I love you my Billy Boy.

Love,

Jan.
